

1 If the members of the attorney general's staff
2 decided they wanted to organize and bargain collectively
3 and their boss uses Constitutional powers to hire and
4 fire them, it would be a matter for the court to decide.
5 I don't see the situation arising.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Darby.

7 DELEGATE DARBY: This wording is certainly all-
8 inclusive. It would include probably all employees of the 9 state and employees of anybody, is that correct?

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Bothe.

11 DELEGATE BOTHE: It would insofar as the con-
12 struction of the word employees included anybody. We 13 have other places in the Constitution. We talk about the 14 militia in terms of war and peace.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Darby.

16 DELEGATE DARBY: This would possibly include
17 the militia. It could be a group of anywhere--

18 THE CHAIRMAN: I don't think you gave her an
19 opportunity to answer your other question. I don't know
20 whether you heard it, Delegate Bothe. He said this 21 would possibly include the militia; would it?
